

Congressional Office to Open in San Diego

(Washington, DC – May 20, 2017) Congressman Vicente Gonzalez, who represents Texas' 15th Congressional District, has chosen San Diego, Texas, as the site for his northern outreach office. The outreach office will be located at the San Diego City Hall, which is a USDA Rural Development funded project. Congressman Gonzalez also has a Washington, DC office at the U.S. Capitol and a district office in Edinburg, TX. Congressman Gonzalez was elected last November and was sworn into office in January.

“We are excited that Congressman Vicente Gonzalez has chosen the City of San Diego as the site of his northern district office,” says San Diego Mayor Sally Lichtenberger. “This new office will further expose the City of San Diego and its residents to federal resources and connect San Diego to Washington, DC,” adds Mayor Lichtenberger.

The new Congressional Office will officially open in June. The city will hold a ribbon cutting ceremony at the San Diego City Hall, which will be open to the public. Details for the ceremony are being planned now and Congressman Vicente Gonzalez and his staff will be on-hand to open the new congressional office.

Once opened, office hours will be Monday – Friday, from 9 a.m. – 6 p.m., and closed for federal holidays. The office will be staffed by the congressman's new Outreach Coordinator Albert Martinez, who will provide a verity of constituent services, such as; veterans affairs and outreach to federal agencies.

“I am committed to representing every person in the 15th Congressional District and I know that constituent services are a vital part of every congressional office,” says Congressman Vicente Gonzalez. “My team and I have been working hard for the district since day one, and we are going to make ourselves accessible to all of our constituents,” adds Congressman Gonzalez.
